God Builds No Churches

*God builds no churches.
By His plan that labor has been left to man.
No spires miraculously arise:
No little mission from the skies
Falls on the bleak and barren place
To be a source of strength and grace.
The humblest church demands its price
In human toil and sacrifice.*

*Men call the Church the House of God.
Toward which the toil-stained pilgrims trod
In search of strength and rest and hope,
As blindly through life's mists they grope.
And there God dwells, but it is man
Who builds that House, and draws its plans:
Pays for mortar and the stone
That none need seek for God alone.*

*The humblest spire in mortal ken
Where God abides was built by men.
And if the church is still to grow.
To still the light of hope to throw
Across the valley of despair,
Men still must build God's House of Prayer.
God sends no churches from the skies
Out of our hearts they must arise.*
